EcoMet

Ecological Philosophy of The Metropolitan Hotel

Please conserve the Earth's Vital Resources.

Reduce. Reuse. Recycle.

While the hotel has the most modern technology to make it operate efficiently, The Met has delved into ancient Vedas to make it eco-friendly. The hotel has incorporated the balance and optimised the benefits of the five elements, namely Earth, Water, Fire, Air & Space.

The Met's Corporate Social Responsibility is to provide support and resources for underprivileged communities by supporting a wide range of socio-economic, educational and health initiatives. In doing so, we partner with organizations or NGOs who have the experience and expertise to guide us.
